School Nursery Plans Arrive For Approval

The year of 1956 will see the construction of a new modern nursery school. This building, to be constructed on Montgomery Street will be of one story and have a brick exterior. Included in the school will be one large playroom, offices, conference rooms, kitchen, bath, storage room, and terrace. Natural lighting is to be provided through the use of much glass in the construction. The school will be equipped to care for 24 children.

The present school, which is equipped for only 18-20 children, will be sold off the lot it occupies. The lot will then be used as a playground for Peabody Elementary School children.

Plans for the new nursery school are expected to be completed by the middle of March, and construction will begin soon afterward.

Students To View Atlanta Concerns

High points of interest in Atlanta will be toured by forty GSCW students on Tuesday, February 14. "The Colonnade" representatives will visit the advertising department in Rich's in the morning session of the tour. At the same time the business majors will be received at the National Bank by Mrs. Helen Pace Thompson. After the tour, they will be given lunch in the cafeteria of the bank.

In the afternoon, both groups will be shown through the "Atlanta Journal and Constitution" Building and will do a bit of sight-seeing in Atlanta.

New York Trip Planned

A Cappella Plans Trip

Jean Crook

The A Cappella Choir and Dr. Max Noah have scheduled a trip to New York City March 16-25. The fifty members of the choir have been invited to present several concerts along the way.

On Friday Night, March 18, they will perform at Hartwell Georgia, and on Saturday at the Mt. Airy Central Methodist Church at Mt. Airy, North Carolina.

The group expects to arrive in Washington, D. C. Sunday, where their presentation will be sponsored by the GSCW Alumnae Club in Washington. They will sight-see in Washington.

Their next performance will be on Tuesday at the Methodist Church in Newport, Delaware. On Wednesday, they will sing at Park Ridge, New Jersey.

They will arrive in New York Thursday where they will stay in Hotel Dixie on 43rd Street. Considerable time will be spent seeing many interesting and educational places in New York.

After their performance in New York Thursday Night, they will leave on Friday morning and perform in the following cities on their way back: College Park, Maryland; Fayetteville, North Carolina; and Augusta Ga.

The choir didn't take a long trip last year. This year, however, they have spent a great deal of time planning to make the trip to New York as successful as possible.

Welcome To GSCW, High School Seniors

Georgia's School System

Sometimes we lose sight of the fact that weaknesses in education anywhere are weaknesses in the nation as a whole. The State of Georgia already has its educational weaknesses and apparently it is preparing for more.

In the private school legislation recently sponsored by the Griffin Administration and upheld strongly by the Georgia Legislature, we wonder if careful consideration was given to the aspects of educational conditions in the state. It is quite evident that the only problem considered was that of segregation. As important as this is to some citizens, it should be weighed carefully against the consequences of abandoning public education.

Education in this state should be furthered to its fullest capacity. Our schools must be staffed with efficient, well-trained and adequately-paid teachers and provided with proper equipment. Students are our potential national and state leaders diplomats, business-men and scientists. The question is, "Can the private school do this?" We maintain that the public school is our greatest assurance of these leaders.

Interposition of the Supreme Court action for integration in our schools can eventually result only in confusion, and, because of this, our children may suffer a great irreparable damage. Our public schools are strongholds of democracy and citizenship. They were planned and built over a long period of time through hard work and great cost to taxpayers.

Is it wise to allow one man, the governor, the power to close public schools and make grants to private schools just to carry a point which has been magnified by tradition and prejudice out of all proportion to its real educational significance? There are too many advantages in public schools to destroy them for such hasty and ill-considered reasons.

Welcome, Seniors

HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS OF GEORGIA, we, at the Georgia State College for Women, extend to you a warm greeting, as we embark together upon this weekend of fun and fellowship.

While here on the "Jessie" campus, we hope that you will take advantage of the many recreational, cultural, and spiritual activities planned for you by the various organizations. Only through participation can one realize the spirit of college life and attain the satisfaction which college life alone offers toward individual success and happiness.

The student body of GSCW is most happy to introduce you to life at "Jessie." The Sophomore Class, who will be your Big Sister Class, next year, is especially anxious to make your visit a pleasant and rewarding one. We are all, wishing you a delightful weekend and are hoping to see you again in September.

Parking Violations

Thursday, it was observed that three cars had abused the "No Parking" pavement sign just outside Parks Hall by parking under and adjacent to the rail which blocks the main campus inlet.

This is a very dangerous practice in that it prevents the passage of the fire truck in case of a fire emergency. By the time the car owners have been found and asked to move their cars, the fire will have already done considerable damage.

It should be the attitude of the owners of these cars to consider the seriousness of this, and park in other areas even though it might necessitate a further walk to classes.

Freedom Of The Press

Are we losing our freedom of the press? Governor Griffin's libel bill which was passed by the Georgia legislature last week indicates an alarming trend away from this fundamental freedom.

This punitive measure, which ties in the state. The person who is passed by a 44 to 7 vote in injured can sue the newspaper in the Senate and which received their county without going to the 144 votes in the House, is aimed home county of the newspaper. at the newspaper corporations in This looks like the county unit Georgia who do not go along with system extended to embrace the all of the measures which the administration of "Justice."

This bill gives the right for any person or persons who do not like what is written about them in the newspapers to sue the newspaper for libel if the newspaper in question has 50 subscribers in 10 counties.

And So Good-Bye

HARDIE

Box 914, GSCW,
Milledgeville, Georgia
February 8, 1958.

Dear Mother and Daddy,
My years of struggle are nearly finished and I can scarcely believe that there exists only six more weeks of college for me.

I'm happy at last to embark upon that long awaited career, but somehow there's a sadness within - a sadness of knowing that only these happy times can now be recalled by memories.

It's difficult to say what college at GSCW has meant. I can't say I've received an education for that is not a push button affair; however, I do know what I don't know. Am I correct in believing that this realization is the greatest value I've received in addition to the incentive to seek knowledge of the unknown?

Not only has GSCW awakened the realization of the beauty of life, but it has presented a basis for the enjoyment of culture. Never shall be forgotten those hours of retreat at Lake Laurel or the beautiful blended voices of the A Cappella Choir rendering "he Messiah". Then too there was the opportunity to experiment with newspaper or with any type club of which I so desired.

Culture - yes - but more than that. I've learned to live with other people. Oh, I know I'm not the easiest person to live with, but then I've learned to give and take. From those earliest days to the present day Senior Code dormitory living, there's been a continual building of a sensitivity of the relationship with others.

Vocational competence has been another aspect of my undertaking. Whether I succeed can only be told by time, but I don't think those hours of meticulous study or of striving toward a goal will be all lost in vain.

The fellowship, the fun and the companionship of the hours are dwindling fast and with them go a past, a cherished past, but one on which I hope to build my future.

Thank you for helping me to know of this college world.

Your daughter,
Lisa

SIXTEEN HOURS

"Some people say a man is made out of mud:

A college man's made with coffee for blood;
Coffee for blood and a fact fuzzed head,
Sleepless eyes and the sinner's spread.

Chorus

Ya carry sixteen hours,
An' what the heck for?
A hound dog's smarter and a plumber makes more
Saint Peter, I'm sorry but I can't come till—
I've dragged my soul through the sheep skin mill.

2nd Verse

Had a hole in my head since I was a pup:
Gotta get a diploma to stuff it up;
Every sixteen hours that I get through
The ad-ministration says "Bully for you!"

Chorus

"When you see me comin', well, have no fears:
All the muscle I got is between my ears!
A few more hours and I'll have my fill
If the Devil don't get me then the draft board will."

Jessie Runs For Office

Becky Garbutt

Marilyn Middleton, a junior of GSCW, was recently nominated at the fall home economics workshop to be Georgia's candidate for national president of the College Club Section of the American Home Economics Association.

This year it is the southern region's turn for nomination of national president. Each of the states in the southern region nominates a girl. From the one nominated to run, three will be selected for the final election. Qualifications of these three are then sent to all the college clubs and each club votes. The returns from the election will be announced in the spring.

Alumnae Association Succeeds In Operation

The Alumnae Association has an interesting mission entitled "Operation Sherlock Holmes." The purpose of this mission is to furnish the Association with the names of former students which have been unknown for a period of time. This has been accomplished by having students get the addresses of people from their home towns which have not been on the list of alumnae.

The most difficult fact of "Operation Sherlock Holmes" has been the attempt to get out-of-town addresses. County chairmen have been appointed and they have done a wonderful job on these out-of-town addresses.

Miss Teenie Bethel, secretary of the Alumnae Association, says that the students have been very cooperative and more successful in getting these addresses than any other channels in some cases.

"Y" Book Store Contributes To World Understanding

Martha Thomas

To a nineteen-year-old Indonesian girl living with her family in Djakarta and going to law school there, the United States of America seemed very far away, and the prospect of going there to study as she had always dreamed, the remotest possibility.

But it was with this very dream in her heart that Sumatini Kusumadilaga took a job with the U. S. Information Service in Djakarta, hoping that some how, somewhere, there were good people who would make her dream come true and that through the Information Service she might find them. Her first step was to send an application to the Institute of International Education in New York, and then - only to wait.

Tini Kusumadilaga had never heard of Milledgeville, Ga., or GSCW, much less the "Y" or the scholarship it gives each year to a foreign student. But, all of a sudden, here she was, and the Y-Bookstore was her Fairy Godmother.

Tini is only one of the many foreign students who have come to our campus through the "Y." It was not long after World War II that the "Y"-Bookstore first came into being, and its original and sole purpose is the aid of foreign students. Some of the first to receive the scholarships were Jewish students under acute Hitlerite persecution during the war.

In selecting a student to receive the scholarship each year, the "Y" works in association with the Institute of International Education in New York. After applying for a student from a specific area, the "Y" is sent several applications of young women from that area, and the final selection is made by the Y-Cabinet with the aid of Miss Izzy Rogers and Mr. Mangialico. Blanca Diaz, one of our former students and an English major from Cordoba, Argentina, went

Fashion's Fads

Jessies have been looking forward to this weekend with much pleasure. The reason, High School Guest Assembly, of course! It is a wonderful opportunity for us as well as for our guests. These visitors will have the chance to see what kind of wardrobe a college girl needs and they may or may not be surprised to learn that it is not necessary to spend a fortune on new clothes.

Most of us learned this the hard way but we all agree that skirts and sweaters comprise a major part of the college student's wearing apparel. Little boy blouses are popular on our campus as well as jumpers and separates. Next fall, there will be even more colors to suit and individual and of course, many new styles will appear. Loafers and Saddle Ox-fords seem to be the rage here because flat shoes are more suitable for campus wear.

To you, our guests, we extend a hearty welcome and we hope that you will like what you see of our fashions on campus. A college wardrobe is not so complex after all and it will be a good idea to look around to see what our Jessies are wearing.

Silk Linen For a Suit

By VERA WINSTON

SILK linen is due to emerge as one of the big fabric favorites of the coming season, having established itself firmly in the resort picture.

Gray silk linen does up smartly into an attractive suit, nicely set off by twelve white buttons in double-breasted array. White piping around the collar, down the front panel, around the scalloped hem and pockets of the jacket carries out the good looking gray and white color combination.

Buzzing Around

A Look At The Social Jessies

Hi, to all the High School Seniors gathered on the "Jessie" Campus. We're all so happy you're here and we hope you like it. Maybe I'll see you next year? I hope so.

I'm nearly worn out from rounding up news, so settle yourself, get comfortable and away we go.

GMC Drill Teams Perform Friday

High school seniors visiting the GSCW campus will have the opportunity to view Friday afternoon the crack drill team of GMC.

For years now GMC has had a crack drill team. This team is made up of a group of boys from GMC who engage in fancy drill. The term "fancy drill" can mean almost any kind of step executed in almost any kind of manner, but which ends up being pleasing to the eyes. Fancy drill is often called "monkey drill," and is often done in quick double time as well as in regular movements.

In the past years, the crack drill team has performed at many veterans organizations, football games and other outdoor gatherings. They are very much in demand.

Great credit should be given to the boys on the team for they spend nearly every afternoon practicing their various steps which have to be memorized perfectly. Each boy must know what to do, when to do it, an how to do it. This takes hour upon hour of practicing; but when they do march for a group they know that it has been time well spent.

The team has special fancy uniforms to go with their special fancy drill. They have special steps, uniforms, and boys to perform, and once a person has watched them, she realizes that they are experts in this field.

The few bright sunny days we had recently brought out all the "Jessies" and "Jimmies" in full force. As I filtered about I've seen Jaime Bonner, Claire Carter, Carol Lewis, Mary Ann Thomas, Sue Stovall, Myrtle Sanders, and soads of others walking hand in hand with their favorite cadet. Makes a pretty sight, don't you agree?

Minor Officers Elected Tuesday

Petitions for the Minor Officers were received February 6-8. The election of these officers will be held February 14 after their introduction in chapel on Monday, the 13. Nominations include: CGA Vice-president: Sara Rice, Marty Camp and Suzanne Blount; Chairman of Judiciary: Nelle Stanton, Peggy O'Neal, Sherrill Brown. Chairman of Honor Council: Tot Crooke, Marie Brown, Joyce Barineau. Corresponding Secretary: Helen Cook, Pat Garrett. Recording Secretary: Theresa Williams, Pat Bowles, Beth Royal, Barbara Abney. Treasurer: Betsy Wilson, Gus Williams.

For "Y" vice-president: Jane Bonner, Sherrill Brown, Jean Sparks. Second vice-president: Frances Padgett, Ann Robertson, Joan Williams, Lois Chapman, Theresa Williams. Secretary: Alvalyn Hutto, Mary Jo Claxton, Jackie Ricks. Treasurer: Cynthia Cunningham, Barbara O'Neal.

For "Rec" vice-president: Frances Domingos, Betty Keaton. Corresponding Secretary: Barbara Richardson, Carolyn Williams, Recording Secretary: Mae Jane Scott, Betty Hall. Treasurer: Daisy Hammett, Reba Sutton, and Faye Thorpe.

Those girls in Bell are really getting lots of long-distance calls and I do mean those Carter sisters. Besides getting long-distance calls they are going out quite often. Is it true Carolyn C. and Eva J.? That's what I was told.

Beverly Branch received a letter so long and nerdy that it almost broke the poor postman's back. Need I tell you it was from her boy-friend?

Emma Jane Mary has been dating a certain fellow at home. Is his name Bob Camp?

I sorta strayed to Ennis Hall where I learned that Carolyn and Bill had been apartment hunting. The big excitement I found was because Nan Davis had just floated in on cloud No. 9. Why? Because of the lovely diamond the love of her life presented her. Best wishes, Nan.

Guess I head for home now and rest myself. I'm tired! Get busy "Jessies" and have some fun but until the next issue remember—I'll be buzzing around....

HUGURET, MILLET, AND MANGIAFICO CONFER OVER THE MAKING OF NEW FRENCH RECORDS.

Huguret and Millet Visit Campus, Make French Records For Institute

Jean Pierre Huguret and Michael Millet have been much in evidence on our campus this year. They are two young Frenchmen from the University of Georgia at Athens. Their mission here at GSCW is to make recordings for the French Department of the Foreign Language Institute.

Poetry, short stories, and general conversation are the context of their records. These records familiarize the students with the accent and inflection of the French language as well as helping them to comprehend at a normal rate of speech.

Jean - Pierre Huguret comes from Montlucon in central France. He is an elementary school teacher studying under a Fulbright Scholarship at the University of Georgia. He is planning to use his training to teach English.

Michel Millet comes from the very famous city of Dijon in the province of Burgundy. He is a graduate lawyer studying English

Y's OWL

De. High School Seniors, Welcome to GSCW, and welcome to the "Y". There's been a lot of activity in the Campus "Y" lately. I wish you could have been around all week to participate in WUS (World University Service) Week. The purpose of WUS week is to raise money to aid students in other lands. You would have had a chance to see our dignified faculty performing for us, and you could have seen Dr. Keeler weeping over lack of butter for his bread. Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday we had an auction in the S. U. Everything from a shoestring owned by the Georgia football captain to cakes baked by the Math department was auctioned. The able auctioneers, who are faculty members on the side, held out for the highest prices. If I couldn't fly, I surely would have been in the bidding for that trip offered by Dr. Greene. On second thought maybe I should have bid on that trip since I might get too heavy to fly from eating some of those delicious dinners offered. I'll know better next time! I did not mind seeing WUS week end, because I knew high school week-end was next in sight.

I shall enjoy seeing you at the pajama parties Friday night. I hope you will enjoy the entertainment and the fellowship. I think you'd like to know the taps programs were especially planned by the owls and owlets to let you see the significance of religious activities on campus.

I hear Izzie calling me to come help her. I'll say "bye" for now. See you at taps tonight.

Inside The Jessies Sport World

When: February 4, 1956

Where: The Big Gym

Who: GSCW vs. Truitt McConnell from Cleveland, Ga.

This was the first game that GSCW had played as a school and was quite a successful one. The girls that participated in the game were ones chosen by the players of intramurals. Frances Domingos, Joyce Barineau, Dot Cook, Sue Colquitt, Sue Ozburn, and Carolyn Williams served as forwards while the other end of the court was occupied by Marty Camp, Gus Williams, Pam Cutts, Betty Hall, Daisy Hammett, and "Scotty" Scott.

As the game got under way the GSCW set a pace that the Truitt McConnell players couldn't keep up with it. Marcia Maddox put through 32 points to lead the field for both teams. Although the girls from Cleveland did not come close to winning, this record is very good. Frances Domingos shot 21 points and Joyce Barineau came in third with 17. A fine game was exhibited and it might be noted that only 7 of the basketball players from Truitt McConnell were able to come. The final score was: GSCW 71; Truitt McConnell 35.

January 30

Beeson met Terrell Proper and A in a battle to see who would stay in the race for champion of the dorm intramurals. This game was marked by fast breaks and drives for the basket. Joyce Barineau racked up 25 points while Dot Cook dropped 18 thru the hoop for Beeson. Terrell was lead by Doris Brock with 17 followed by Elaine Holloman and Ann Weeks with 6 each. In the final minutes of the game Beeson seemed to have the tilt and in the score book the final score reads: Beeson 60, Terrell Proper and A. 31.

January 31

On this day Bell faced the Town Girls and Bell walked away with a rousing victory. As a whole the entire game was rather slow as can be seen in the final score 34 to 13. Brantley put 9 points in for the Town Girls and Boleyn made two baskets. Bell was fired to victory by Frances Domingos with 13, followed by Betty Keaton with 9 and "Hut" Hutto with 8. This game took place after supper and the girls may have been tired as a result of a hard days work.

February 2

The championship game for the dorm. title was played off between Bell and Beeson. As the game got under way it was a big question as to just who would finally come out on top. The entire game was played under great tension as one team would make a point the other one would answer it with 2 for themselves. The lead was taken by Beeson late in the fourth quarter and was held to win in final tally. Although the Beesonites played the same six the whole game they were on and just couldn't be whipped. As the horn blew Beeson's score was 36 and Bell's read 31.

February 6

The first game of the Class Intramurals was played Monday, February 6 between the Frosh and Juniors. The Big sisters really had to play hard to beat the up and coming Freshmen. The outstanding point of this game was the fine passing that was displayed. The Frosh lost by 9 points as the score read 40 to 49 in the final total. This was a very well played game on the part of both teams.

Tumbling Tribes Hold Pow-wow

Ah la, ene mene ca ca un cho-cho-and a pee waa was . . . boom, boom, boom, boom, boom, boom, boom. The time has passed for the two Oconee River Indian tribes to have, their scheduled meeting which test their strength abilities.

Leaving their homesteads (GSCW) at six o'clock a.m. on January 27, both tribes arrived safely at Griffin High to test their skill abilities at 8:40. Then after exploring the school, the tribes enjoyed lunch in the Griffin High cafeteria. The second meeting place was Spalding Junior High at two-thirty. Even though both teams were tired and weary from a busy day, the match proved to be a successful one.

Included in both matches were forward and backward rolls, double rolls, dives for distance, head stands, an ear stand, and humorous pyramids. The meeting ended with a squash which was a conglomeration of both tribes.

CLUE: The tribes were composed of the Tumbling Club members. The Tumbling Club has been active since September, 1943, with Miss Chapin as the organizer and the faculty advisor all through the years. Reba Sutton, president for 1954-55 and 55-56, is the spark plug which keeps all the members on their toes.

Modern Dance Club Presents Program

the role, Scarlett, as the high light present a program in Russell Auditorium at 8:00 p.m. on Friday, February 10, as one of the featured events of the Georgia Guest Assembly Week End.

The program will be a group of original dances composed by the members of the Junior and Senior Modern Dance Clubs under the direction of Barbara Page Beiswanger.

The program will open with "Invitation to Dance," choreographed by seven members of Senior Dance Club. A cordial salute will be made to the audience to participate in the pleasures of moving gaily to the stirring music of Emil Waldteufel.

The second dance is entitled, "I Remember," and is a comment on the formality, and the pomp and circumstance of court life during the 17 or early 18 century, a period in which the minuet was a favorite pastime. Dr. George Beiswanger will furnish, on the piano, a short sonata by Domenico "Scarlati," which was chosen by the five members of Senior Club who have composed this dance.

Six members of Junior Club have titled their first dance of the evening, "Of Air Am I." Gian - Carlo Menotti of recent Broadway fame has supplied the music, "A Pavanne," for a dance of sorrow entitled, "For the Dejected." Eleven members of Junior Club have planned and composed this dance.

The first part of the program will close with three comedies. The first is an anxious, austere audition entitled, "Give A Girl a Break," composed by three Juniors who have been members of Dance Club for three years. Familiar music of Claude Debussy is used. "A Day in the Country" is centered around the ever present triangle, but in this case it turns out happily for all concerned. A gay bit of music by Victor Young was chosen as the appropriate accompaniment for this trio of Senior Club members.

The concluding dance in this section, entitled "Three Cheers,"

She will play the role of interlocutor presenting excerpts from her libretto to set the tone for various episodes of the dance drama.

Psychology Club Plans Field Trip

Plans are underway for the Psychology Club to make a visit to the State Hospital to observe the electroencephalograph sometime during the spring quarter.

The Psychology Club is open to students majoring or minoring in psychology. Its advisor is Dr. Frances Hicks.

During the year they have had a supper at Lake Laurel. Mr. Morris from the State Hospital has spoken to the group and they have sponsored a chapel speaker.

The latter was Dr. Langhorne, head of the psychology department at Emory University. Before Dr. Langhorne left he was entertained by the psychology club with an informal coffee.

Robert Rudie, concert violinist, will perform at the Community Concert on February 22, 1956 at 8:30 P. M. in Russell Auditorium.

Robert Rudie, Famous Violinist, Presents Community Concert Here

Robert Rudie, Concert Violinist, will be the guest performer of the Community Concert series presented in Russell Auditorium on February 22, at 8:30 P. M.

Mr. Rudie made his first appearance as guest artist with a symphony orchestra at the age of 10. His many recitals, concert tours, orchestral appearances, international radio broadcasts and participation in two Casals Festivals have earned him enthusiastic acclaim of press and public.

He was concertmaster and assistant conductor of the Oklahoma City Symphony Orchestra for 11 years. His concerts, recordings and international broadcasts as soloist, conductor or concertmaster of this organization are a tribute to his unique versatile musicianship. He was founder and conductor of the Oklahoma City Symphony Chorus which gave many performances of major works with the Symphony, and whose recording of Debussy's "Martyrdom of St. Sebastian" won the praise of critics from coast to coast.

The American-born son of French musicians, Mr. Rudie received all of his musical training in the United States. He is the winner of many coveted scholarships and prizes, including the new York Philharmonic, Symphony Society scholarship, a Fellowship at Julliard Graduate School, the National Federation of Music Clubs award and many others.

Robert Rudie is an unusual personality, whose concerts are a delightful blend of artistry, with interest. A pure singing tone, coupled with incredible technique underwritten by genuine musicianship, combine to make Robert Rudie one of the most exciting violinists now appearing on the American concert stage.

The departments and leaders of CGA are the central center around which the college functions as a governmental body, but each individual is equally important in this government. One is automatically a member of CGA and should accept her individual responsibility to uphold and respect the principles of college government.

The Judiciary Department is one of the major departments of CGA and the main duty of the members is to organize the dormitory council and hear cases referred to it by the dormitory councils. The Chairman of Judiciary edits the "Handbook" and selects and instructs the hand book teachers for the freshmen.

The Honor Council and Honor Code are vitally important to us because they are the bases of our Honor System. The members of the Honor Council study and interpret the Honor System and support the Honor Code. They hear cases referred to them by judiciary. Another important department of CGA is the Board of House Councils. The members are elected in each dormitory, and they investigate cases involving violations of minor social responsibilities.

The Student Council includes all the officers of the three major organizations and other presidents and editors. The main duty of the Student Council is to promote faculty-student relationships.

Modern Drama Takes Form of Arena Stage

"Guest in the House," a modern drama by Eunson and Wilder, will be presented by College Theatre February 21, 23, and 24, in the Alumnae Guest House. The story is that of a neurotic young girl who comes into a normal family as a guest and completely upsets the family.

An interesting feature of the production is its use of the arena staging, in which the players are right in the midst of the audience.

Tickets for each of the three performances should be procured early as seats will be limited to 125 a night. Season tickets must be exchanged for a ticket for a particular performance.

Frances Padgett as the wife and mother, Maurice Martin as the daughter, and June Bray as the "guest", head the cast. Others in the cast are: Sylvia McCluskey, Sylvia McCluskey, Barbara Koger, Sheila White, Gloria Swann, Alice

THE BRIGADIER

Books Offer Enjoyment, Retreat

For sheer enjoyment novels are today and have been for centuries the most popular form of literature. A story dramatic and well told—with characters living their lives in moments of high adventure or meeting the familiar problems of everyday life with vigor and determination—is in itself an adventure for the reader. "That is a good book which is opened with expectation and closed with delight and profit." Few experiences are more thrilling than the reading of a good novel.

Following are a few excerpts taken from Henry David Thoreau's famous Walden:

"To read well, that is, to read true books in a true spirit, is a noble exercise, and one that will task the reader more than any exercise which the customs of the day esteem. It requires a training such as the athletes underwent, the steady intention almost of the whole life to this object. Books must be read as deliberately and reservedly as they were written.

"A written word is the choicest of relics. It is something at once more intimate with us and more universal than any other work of art. It is the work of art nearest to life itself. It may be translated into every language, and not only be read but actually breathed from all human lips:—not be represented on canvas or in marble only, but be carved out of the breath of life itself. Books are the treasured wealth of the world and the fit inheritance of generations and nations. Books, the oldest and the best, stand naturally and rightfully on the shelves of every cottage. They have no cause of their own to plead, but while they enlighten and sustain the reader his common sense will not refuse them. Their authors are a natural and irresistible aristocracy in every society, and more than kings and emperors, exert an influence on mankind.

"I think that having learned our letters we should read the best that is in literature, and not be forever repeating our a-b-abs, and words of one syllable, in the fourth or fifth classes, sitting on the lowest and foremost form all our lives. Most men are satisfied if they read or hear read, and perchance have been convicted by the wisdom of one good book, the Bible, and for the rest of their lives vegetate and dissipate their faculties in what is called easy reading.

"It is not all books that are as dull as their readers. There are probably words addressed to our condition exactly, which, if we could really hear and understand, would be more salutary than the morning or the spring to our lives, and possibly put a new aspect on the face of things for us. How many a man has dated a new era in his life from the reading of a book! The book exists for us, perchance, which will explain our miracles and reveal new ones. The at present unutterable things we may find somewhere uttered. These same questions that disturb and puzzle and confound us have in their turn occurred to all the wise men, not one has been omitted; and each has answered them, according to his ability, by his words and his life."
